

Access to Justice Fellows Program Information Session

12:30 PM to 1:30 PM

Boston Bar Association
16 Beacon Street, Boston, MA

The Access to Justice Fellows Program, a project of the Massachusetts Access to Justice Commission and the Lawyers Clearinghouse, enables senior lawyers and retired judges to partner with nonprofit organizations, courts, and other public interest entities to increase equal justice for all. By matching lawyers who are retired or transitioning toward retirement with groups that need their help, the A2J Fellows program allows these lawyers to use their specialized skills and experience to do engaging pro bono work, remain active members of the legal community, and help people and groups in need.

Those interested in participating as a Fellow are invited to attend this discussion of the program's benefits and what to expect during the fellowship year. Former Fellows will be speaking about their first-hand experiences with the program and there will be a networking portion for prospective Fellows to chat with Fellows about the program.

This program is free and open to the legal community.
